MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, DDI, Administrative Staff

SUBJECT : Nomination for the Federal Executive Institute
Charlottesville, Virginia

25X1 1. I nominate [ ] for the 25 October-18 December 1970 running of the Federal Executive Institute's Residential Program 25X1 In Executive Education to be conducted at Charlottesville, Virginia.

2. [ ] is a GS-15 and is one of the four principle senior NPIC managers reporting to the Office of the Director. As Chief of the Planning, Programming and Budgeting Staff (PPBS) he has broad managerial responsibilities in developing, coordinating and implementing the Center's long range goals and objectives with due regard for the NPIC's missions and resources. His staff is comprised of 20 people and staffed by both CIA and DIA employees.

25X1 3. Attendance at the Federal Executive Institute would be most 25X1 beneficial for [ ] NPIC and the Agency. It would give him the opportunity to be exposed to the problems of other senior government officials and permit [ ] to observe alternative solutions to the types of problems which may face the NPIC. He has high potential for further advancement within the Center and the Agency. As one of my best and most promising officers, I am sure that he would be an excellent representative of the Agency.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, DDI, Administrative Staff

SUBJECT : Nomination for the Federal Executive Institute

25X1 1. I nominate [ ] for the 7 March-30 April 1971 25X1 running of the Federal Executive Institute 'Residential Program in Executive Education' to be given at Charlottesville, Virginia.

2. [ ] is a GS-16 and has been the Executive Director of NPIC since November 1969. In assuming his new position, he has confirmed his versatility and resourcefulness as a manager. His abilities and potentialities were also clearly demonstrated by his prior performance as a Division Chief and as Deputy Director of the Office of Strategic Research.

25X1 3. [ ] attendance at the Federal Executive Institute would provide him with an expanded knowledge of executive management.
It would be beneficial for him, NPIC and the Agency in directing the internal operations of the Center and in supporting the national coordination responsibilities of the Center. [ ] would have the opportunity to have further exposure to executives of other government agencies and develop insights into their management problems, techniques and programs.
